

Wisdom of a Yaqui Traveler

Don Lorenzo, “Lench”, is a Yaqui Indian from Southern Arizona who has led individuals and small groups into the Sonoran Desert for over thirty years. He is a Vietnam Veteran and has Twenty Years of Military Experience as an Adviser on Ethnic and Human Relations with an emphasis on Native American Traditions and Awareness. He has traveled and lectured Worldwide and represented Native Americans at the Vatican World Mission Conference in Rome, Italy in the fall of 2000. He works with Doctors, Therapists, Psychiatrists, Educators, Organizations, Hospice, and medicine People of all Walks and all Nations. He is an Elder and an Advocate of Earth and Self Awareness.